2010 KIDDSTUFF Season

LYLE THE CROCODILE

June 24-26

By Kevin Kling, Based on the books by Bernard Waber

A colorful tour of New York City as seen through the eyes of its newest visitor, an African crocodile named Lyle. Full of slapstick and funny characters, follow Lyle as he tours the City, meets some interesting neighbors, plays hide and seek for the very first time, and becomes the hero of his block! Themes include: making friends, tolerance and acceptance, home-sickness, and family relationships.

MIKE MULLIGAN AND HIS STEAM SHOVEL

July 8-10, 15-17

By Eric Lane Barnes, Based on the book by Virginia Lee Burton

Mike Mulligan and his steam shovel named Mary Anne are told they are no longer needed because of new technology. Join this dedicated duo as they sing their way through every challenge in this tuneful and joyous musical. Themes include: loyalty, sharing, and teamwork.

LILLY'S PURPLE PLASTIC PURSE

July 29-31

By Kevin Kling, Based on the book by Kevin Henkes

It's an exciting time in Lilly's life! She has a new teacher, a new baby brother, and best of all—a new purple plastic purse! Come with Lilly as she dances her way through new adventures with her hilarious friends Chester and Wilson. Themes include: new siblings, paying attention, cooperation, and self-expression.

IF YOU GIVE A MOUSE A COOKIE

August 12-14

By Jody Davidson, Based on the book by Laura Joffe Numeroff

What would you do if a cute, little mouse asked you for a cookie? ...and some milk? ...and a napkin? ...and a nap?! Find out what happens when one little boy spends his entire day trying to keep up with one mischievous, adventurous mouse! Themes include: patience, following directions, cooperation, and role-play.

SCHOOLHOUSE ROCK, LIVE! JR.

August 26-28

Book by Scott Ferguson, Kyle Hall, and George Keating

Performed by the Hangar Theatre Next Generation Teens, a young teacher awakens on his first day of work, turns on the TV and is drawn into the joyous and colorful world of School House Rock! With such favorites as "I'm Just a Bill" and "Conjunction Junction," it will have you singing along and dancing in the aisles. Themes include: English Language Arts, Social Studies, and Science.
